

Vision of Faculty of Nursing

A leading college in providing distinguished nursing programs among Egyptian, regional and international universities .

Mission of Faculty of Nursing

A series of specialized educational programs for the preparation of qualified nursing staff to meet the requirements of the job fair and contribute to the development of scientific research and meet the needs of the community.

Annual report of the measurement and evaluation unit

During the academic year 2018-2019

Director Unit

Dr: Wesam Kamal Ali

Dean of the College

Prof doctor: Enas Ibrahim

Vision of Faculty of Nursing

A leading college in providing distinguished nursing programs among Egyptian, regional and international universities .

Mission of Faculty of Nursing

A series of specialized educational programs for the preparation of qualified nursing staff to meet the requirements of the job fair and contribute to the development of scientific research and meet the needs of the community.

- Updating the annual plan of the unit of measurement and evaluation for the academic year 2018/2019.
- Training members of the unit on how to correct the electronic paper.
- Training the number of two members of the control after addressing the heads of control (first - second - third - fourth) to nominate two members of the control of the training to correct the new electronic paper.
- Training the students of the teams (first - second - third - fourth) on how to use electronic paper.

Vision of Faculty of Nursing

A leading college in providing distinguished nursing programs among Egyptian, regional and international universities .

Mission of Faculty of Nursing

A series of specialized educational programs for the preparation of qualified nursing staff to meet the requirements of the job fair and contribute to the development of scientific research and meet the needs of the community.

- A workshop entitled "Evaluation and correction systems" was held on Monday, 10-12-2018.

- The internal regulations of the unit of measurement and evaluation were completed
- An advisory committee for the unit of measurement and evaluation has been established.
- Functional description of members of the unit of measurement and evaluation has been developed.
- Updating the formation of the committees of the unit of measurement and evaluation.
- Addressing the control centers to form a tripartite committee to review the specifications of the exam paper and submit it on the review form and already the committees formed to review the specifications of the exam paper.

Vision of Faculty of Nursing

A leading college in providing distinguished nursing programs among Egyptian, regional and international universities .

Mission of Faculty of Nursing

A series of specialized educational programs for the preparation of qualified nursing staff to meet the requirements of the job fair and contribute to the development of scientific research and meet the needs of the community.

- The matrix of linking the exams with the learning outcomes of the scientific departments.

- A report on the specifications of the exam paper was prepared according to the reviews of the control committees for the articles. The report shows the extent of the fulfillment of the specifications of the exam paper and also includes the proposed plan for the improvement procedures to meet the specifications of the exam paper.

A report on the progress of the examination process for the academic year 2018-2019 was presented for the first semester. The report shows that the percentage of electronic correction of the decisions of the bachelor's degree was 81.25%.

- Workshop on the OSCE in cooperation with the Education Development Unit on Sunday, 17/2/2019.

Vision of Faculty of Nursing

A leading college in providing distinguished nursing programs among Egyptian, regional and international universities .

Mission of Faculty of Nursing

A series of specialized educational programs for the preparation of qualified nursing staff to meet the requirements of the job fair and contribute to the development of scientific research and meet the needs of the community.

- A group of student posters: -

Introduce students to the rules in the examination committees.

Vision of Faculty of Nursing

A leading college in providing distinguished nursing programs among Egyptian, regional and international universities .

Mission of Faculty of Nursing

A series of specialized educational programs for the preparation of qualified nursing staff to meet the requirements of the job fair and contribute to the development of scientific research and meet the needs of the community.

Identify students and faculty members, administrators and beneficiaries of the service complaints complaints within the college.

Vision of Faculty of Nursing

A leading college in providing distinguished nursing programs among Egyptian, regional and international universities .

Mission of Faculty of Nursing

A series of specialized educational programs for the preparation of qualified nursing staff to meet the requirements of the job fair and contribute to the development of scientific research and meet the needs of the community.

Introduce students to the method used to conduct grievances from examination results.

Vision of Faculty of Nursing

A leading college in providing distinguished nursing programs among Egyptian, regional and international universities .

Mission of Faculty of Nursing

A series of specialized educational programs for the preparation of qualified nursing staff to meet the requirements of the job fair and contribute to the development of scientific research and meet the needs of the community.

- Workshop in cooperation with the Education Development Unit, entitled "Techniques of preparing tests" on 17/12/2018.

- A workshop in cooperation with the Education Development Unit, under the system of question banks and rules of performance assessment of students (rubric) on 3/2/2019.

Vision of Faculty of Nursing

A leading college in providing distinguished nursing programs among Egyptian, regional and international universities .

Mission of Faculty of Nursing

A series of specialized educational programs for the preparation of qualified nursing staff to meet the requirements of the job fair and contribute to the development of scientific research and meet the needs of the community.

Through the activities, the objectives of the unit were achieved:

- Achieve discipline for the conduct of examinations and their compatibility with educational curricula.
- Continuous development of the educational process as a feedback and constructive proposals to make the most of the educational outputs and different skills acquired by students.
- Develop general rules governing the status of questions and the general form of the examination paper.
- The establishment of general rules to regulate the conduct of examinations in college.

Strength point

- To cooperate with the University's Measurement and Evaluation Center and provide technical support to the unit.
- Provide the latest equipment for the electronic correction process.
- Cooperating with the faculty administration and faculty members and the faculty in cooperation with the unit of measurement and evaluation to achieve the objectives of the unit.
- Collaborate with the unit.

Proposals for improvement

- Conducting training courses for students on modern assessment techniques.
- Addressing the scientific departments that have postgraduate studies to activate the electronic correction.